

Members who do not provide a bank account to receive the government's subsidy is advised to register with the Workers' Welfare Board.

By Muthu NewsTM | Thu, 9 Apr 2020

Due to the curfew imposed by Corona, Tamil Nadu is providing assistance. Accordingly, workers registered with the Tamil Nadu Construction and Bodybuilding Welfare and NGO Drivers' Welfare Fund will receive Rs. Tamil Nadu government has ordered a relief of Rs. 1,000.

Accordingly, in the district of Chennai, relief is being given to workers registered in welfare centers. In this case, the question remains as to how those members who are not registered with the welfare bank and who do not have a bank account get it.

In this case, members can send details including name, phone number, bank account book, family card, e-mail to loossche@gmail.com or 'WhatsApp' number 73052 80011. Chennai District Labor Assistant Commissioner Shanti said members who have provided bank account details should not re-register.