The West Bengal government on Monday announced a number of Covid curfew relaxation.

The government announced that Mumbai-Kolkata and Delhi-Kolkata flights can now operate daily provided they adhere to Covid norms and all passengers carry a negative RT-PCR test.

The state also allowed flights from the United Kingdom to operate daily with an RT-PCR test rider.

West Bengal on Sunday registered 3427 new coronavirus cases on Sunday. A decline from what the state was registering towards early January.

The West Bengal government had on 3 January restricted flights from national capital Delhi and financial capital Mumbai after these cities reported a spike in Covid cases.

Flights from Delhi and Mumbai were allowed to touch Dum Dum only three days a week from 5 January.

West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee also said that night curfew will be in force across the state between 11 pm till 5 am instead of earlier 10 pm to 5 am.

Restaurants, bars, and cinema halls will operate at 75% capacity. Parks and tourist places will also reopen with Covid safety protocols, the Bengal CM has said.

Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee also said the schools for classes 8 to 12 will reopen from 3 February as the Covid-19 pandemic situation has improved in the state.
