

Go digital! Follow these simple steps to file EPF/EPS nomination online

Updated: 21 Aug 2022, 10:58 AM IST

- In this digital world, making an e-nomination is a paperless procedure since members are not obliged to visit their local EPF office and can instead submit nominations online from the comfort of their own homes.

It is compulsory to file e-nomination for the members of the Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO) in order to receive welfare benefits for their families. An EPF member can provide various benefits to his or her family if he or she had filed an e-nomination. These benefits include Provident Fund (PF), Pension (EPS), and insurance (EDLI) benefit, making online claim settlements upon a member's death, eligible nominees, and many others.

In this digital world, making an e-nomination is a paperless procedure since members are not obliged to visit their local EPF office and can instead submit nominations online from the comfort of their own homes.

To submit an e-nomination, the member must first activate his UAN account on the UAN member portal and ensure that his or her UAN, Member ID, Establishment ID, Name, Date of Birth, Father/Spouse Name, Relationship, Date of Joining, Gender, and Marital Status are all correct. The member must give one KYC detail for each nominee in order to retrieve nomination details online, and the total share for all PF / EDLI Nominees must equal 100%.
